

Anshe Emet Men's Club's Very First

Shabbaton

January 31 – February 1

Rabbi Charles Simon

Executive Director, Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs

Join the Anshe Emet Men's Club in welcoming noted author, scholar, and conservative movement luminary, Rabbi Charles Simon, to a Shabbaton filled with prayer, storytelling, provocative discussion, and of course, bountiful food.

Friday, January 31

Kabbalat Shabbat & Ma'ariv
at Anshe Emet at 6:00 p.m.

"The Role of Jewish Men in the Jewish Family"

Gourmet Private Shabbat Dinner with Rabbi Simon at Milt's BBQ at 7:15 p.m. Cost is $36/person

Visit <http://tinyurl.com/MensClubShabbaton> to register for dinner.

Saturday, February 1

Discussion on Keruv, FJMC's initiative addressing interfaith families
at Anshe Emet at 9:30 a.m.

Follow-Up Discussion on Keruv with Rabbi Simon & Rabbi Siegel
at Anshe Emet during Kiddush

Rabbi Simon has been the Executive Director of the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs since 1981. He currently serves as the Conservative movement's representative to Europe. His accomplishments include the development of the highly acclaimed Art of Jewish living series, A Guide to the Shabbat Morning Torah Service and The Ties That Bind. He edited and supervised the Hearing Men's Voices series, designed to assist Jewish men to address issues facing them today.

Please contact Gregg Pollack for additional information on the Men's Club Shabbaton at 312-953-5634 or gdp1961@aol.com.